

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, undated, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. ALBEMARLE HOTEL, Madison Square, West New York. (no date 1904? Courtesy of Mrs. Hubbard) My dear Alec:

Please let me know when you want me to come home, Sarah will come and stay with Daisy and I would be satisfied to return Wednesday, certainly Thursday unless you are not going to be there. Daisy had some indigestion yesterday, and that may interfere with her sitting up tomorrow, but I hardly think so. I would like to see her sitting up one day before I leave, that is why I say Wednesday, but I could leave tomorrow if there was any special reason. Dr. Cleveland wants to see me before I leave, to be sure everything is all right, I could do that tomorrow.

I wrote your Father inviting him to come and stay with us. I don't think of anything more to say except that I love you. I will look for Gipseys wedding present from us here. Would $500. be too much? We gave her mother $1500.00 and I think Grace and Charlie have given her that much. But whatever you say.

Ever yours, Mabel.
